

Mike Gossin Announces First Solo EP Release: “Coming Home”

NASHVILLE, TN - Founding member of the internationally beloved, multi-award winning country-rock band “Gloriana” is “Coming Home” with his first solo EP on Nov. 3.

Equipped with over a decade of experience in the music industry dominating the country and Hot 100 charts, this decorated singer-songwriter is at the precipice of redefining the country music scene once again. With a collection of uplifting and heartfelt melodies, “Coming Home” is a deeply personal project that reflects on Gossin’s highs and lows.

Stepping into a more dominant role in the creation of his EP, Gossin wrote, produced and played on each and every track. This is a masterful creation of a seasoned professional, a place where Gossin is able to display his versatility in the music industry and shine his own unique light.

“Coming Home” will be available on all platforms Friday, November 3. For more information on Mike visit, <https://www.mikegossin.com/> and follow him on Instagram, Facebook and TikTok @mikegossin.
